

Some days can seem to last forever when you are homeless. Pray for those you see on the streets.

