Other Ways to Give

Planned Giving

Through planned giving options, there are many different ways to join us as we continue to help the homeless.

Here are a couple of options to explore for giving opportunities:

A Bequest of Life Insurance

Your life insurance could possibly be something that is no longer needed with your current circumstances. There are a number of charitable life insurance options to consider if you choose to donate it. Creating a bequest of life insurance is an easy gift to establish. You simply leave a life insurance policy to charity, if the policy is no longer needed for its intended purposes, by completing a beneficiary designation form.

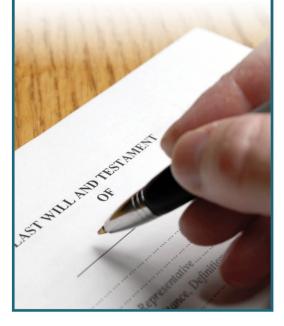

Either of these options can allow you to create a legacy for a better future for those at Joy Junction should you choose to make us your beneficiary.

Making a Will

Making a will is always a good idea. Your will explains what you would prefer to happen to your estate (money, possessions, property) after you pass. If you don't leave legal instructions as to your desires, the law decides how your estate is divided up, dispersed, etc., and this might not be in line with your wishes.

We have information on our website about making a will, free of charge.

It provides questions for you to answer, then after you submit your requests, it "writes" a will for you with your particulars, and then you print it out and have it notarized. If you'd like to check into that option, please go to www.joyjunction.org and select the "FreeWill" logo button at the top of the page.
